FOREWORD

This is the revised ninth edition of the Australian AA Service Manual. It incorporates all of AA's traditional 'legacy documents': the Twelve Steps, the Twelve Traditions, and the Twelve Concepts, as well as the Conference Charter together with the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the General Service Board. Since the fourth edition, the Manual has been posted at the Australian AA Service website as a service to AA Members. Since the sixth edition, the Manual and associated AA Guidelines have both been available as bound volumes, while Internet versions have enabled Members to download updated sections as they became available between editions.

As with the previous edition, this version is clearly an Australian document, but it honours its North American roots, the history taking its proud place, mainly in the first section.

The seventh edition was the first to incorporate an Index. The Index has been constructed by being mindful of the references likely to be sought by both newcomer and advanced trusted servants. To facilitate indexing and reader access, page numbering is now sequential. It is hoped that Members will now find significantly more accessible, the Manual's great richness as an AA source.

As before, the editors have kept in mind the primary purpose of having a Service Manual: to provide a clear, informative, accurate resource that can be referred to with confidence by all who volunteer to do AA General Service work, who need to understand how AA's General Service Structure was and is built, how it works, and how the various trusted servant roles fit together in the context of the General Service Conference.

The North American and past Australian AA Service Manuals begin with a statement of responsibility:

This is AA's Service Manual – an outgrowth of the "Third Legacy Manual" which served the movement so well beginning with Bill W's first draft in 1951. All of the basic service principles and procedures outlined in that document have been retained. In the interests of convenience and completeness, the material has been edited and rearranged.

No alterations or additions have been made in the Twelve Concepts for World Service in conformity with the decision of the 1985 US/Canada General Service Conference. For details see Preface to the "Twelve Concepts for World Service" in this edition.
